Benefits

- Follow a pioneering program in its field, covering the fundamentals of IHRM with a unique focus on the developments and challenges of new ways of working linked to digital transformation.
- Become a global leader by learning how to handle HR operations in a dynamic international environment.
- Develop on both a professional and a personal level within an intensive and stimulating program in a multicultural environment.
- Have the opportunity to apply your learning directly to a real HR issue within a company as part of the Live Business Case.
- Earn your degree from a triple-accredited institution with worldwide recognition.

Program Structure

This is a two-year program. The program begins in September and requires full attendance for one academic year (September-June) followed by a Final Management Project on a IHR-related subject of the student's choice. The Management Project may be completed in parallel with a full-time internship or employment.

International Career Networking Opportunities

The MSc IHRM intake combines full-time international students with part-time French students who are completing the degree as part of a work-study program. This presents international students with a unique opportunity to meet French professionals, extending their network and creating future career opportunities.

Faculty

Classes are taught by GEM faculty, visiting professors from top universities worldwide, and top business professionals. Most of the permanent faculty are engaged in applied research, with teaching linking theory to practice through business cases. Their diverse cultural and international background lends a strong international dimension to the program

"I chose GEM because it is a top business school not just in France but in Europe as well. The International HR Management program helped me find the path to take in my career, and most importantly, the program equipped me with the knowledge and experience necessary for having insightful and confident conversations with HR professionals and leaders alike.

This confidence played a critical role in getting a job in the HR Strategy & Planning team of a large corporation and later in Management Consulting."

- Denes Gyorgy, IHRM, 2019 Graduate, Management Consultant in Talent & Organization at Accenture

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Innovative Learning for Career Progression

You will be encouraged to develop your professional skills through a series of innovative learning activities. By taking part in real-life professional experiments and in GEM's renowned serious games, you will be encouraged to develop your soft skills (teamwork, presentation, negotiation, leadership).

Serious Game Designer Certificate ¹

Students have the additional option of obtaining the serious game designer certificate at no additional fee. This certificate program is designed to boost your ability to solve managerial challenges and develop creativity. Conditions apply ¹

Personal and Professional Development Workshops

In addition to the core courses, students have the opportunity to attend personal and professional development workshops led by professionals, industry and subject matter experts. These will strengthen the employability profiles of graduates to help them achieve their career goals. Students will also have access to individual counselling sessions, interaction with corporate partners and online resources with jobs and internship opportunities as well as access to specific in-house sectorial career focused communities.

Foreign Languages

Learning a foreign language is a recommended program option for all students who are looking to work internationally. Non-French speakers have the option of studying French (beginner to advanced level), a recommended option for students looking to work in France following their studies. French speakers may choose from a number of other languages at beginner level.

Study Trip²

Students on the program will participate in a 2-day HR study trip, combining classes and corporate visits to leading organizations. Previously students met with ILO (International Labour Organization), UNICEF and WTO (World Trade Organization). International Study Trip is contingent on global conditions and travel restrictions ²

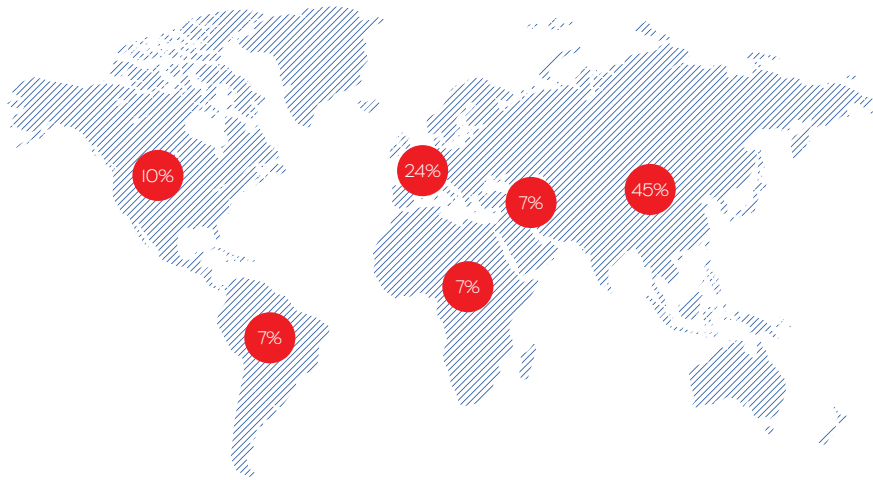

Live Business Case

The Live Business Case (LBC) gives the students the opportunity to apply their learning directly to a real HR issue offered by a participating company. Students will work in teams and develop their LBC over several months in parallel to the taught part of the program. They will meet with their assigned company and LBC coach regularly to define and review the objectives of their project and the expected deliverables. The objective of the LBC is for MSC IHRM students to help real companies find innovative solutions to address their HR issues and enable them to improve their HR process with digital tools.

GEM MSc IHRM Student Profile

Candidates should have excellent interpersonal skills, good oral and written communication skills and a strong motivation for international relations and business.

A word from the program director: "The MSc IHRM combines theoretical knowledge with a strong technical and practical orientation to enable students to master key operational concepts while developing their soft skills. The program has an international focus, as the ever-increasing globalization of business impacts HRM and provides an insight into the impact and challenges of digital transformation on HR today. Students are encouraged to interact with local and international companies in the form of seminars, conferences, on-campus recruitment events and of course through the Live Business Cases. Come, join us and be part of this unique and enriching experience!" - Sabine Lauria
