

Learn more than just a language!

The history of Inflexyon takes us back to 2006, the year our French language school was founded. Ever since the beginning, our main idea is to offer an innovative and dynamic studying programmes individually tailored to our students preferences.

Each student is approached with attention to his or hers needs in a warm, familial manner by our international office team. Our professors are all certified as French foreign language teachers. Moreover, they have all experience of living abroad and thus can perfectly understand the difficulties of the students who are in daily contact with a culture that is foreign to them. Our pedagogic team prepares innovative and creative teaching programmes combining standard and modern education materials (language books, Francophone literature, visual media such as video, cinema, music etc.).

We can proudly say that each year, Inflexyon welcomes more and more students from all around the world and our efforts were rewarded by FLE Quality Label in 2010, 2014 and in 2018 when we got the maximum score - 15 stars out of 15. We are also proud to be a member of Campus France.

However, we do not propose only French language courses as such. We also focus on joining language courses with discovering French culture, French gastronomy and French lifestyle. Inflexyon is also an official examination centre for DELF, DALF, TCF and TEF exams. In addition, our students can benefit from our administrative assistance, accommodation booking and culture activities.

Inflexyon, the French language school that will give you all you need to succeed!

Lyon - the international capital of gastronomy and silk

Lyon was one of the most important cities of the Roman Empire. Nowadays, the second largest French city is well connected with the rest of the world due to its international airport Lyon Saint Exupéry. Lyon's strategic location allows you to travel within the Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region as well as to other well-known places such as Grenoble, Marseille, Annecy or Geneva, which are just around the corner. Moreover, if you are travelling from Paris, you can reach Lyon in just about two hours train ride.

Above all, Lyon is known for its ample gastronomy represented by authentic "bouchon" - restaurants offering a great variety of specialities based on meat products and vegetables. Prepared from local resources originating from nearby French regions, the dishes are best accompanied with a regional wine of artisanal quality.

Further, Lyon was one of the final stops of the ancient Silk Road. You can trace the history of silk and silk workers called "canuts" by visiting The Museum of Textiles, Maison des Canuts and Soierie Vivante. As the second biggest luxury consumer of the country, Lyon is a hub for famous brands, such as Hermès or Chanel, as well as for newcoming designers.

In addition, Lyon is a lively and intercultural place to live as it offers many interesting events throughout each season. Whether you are just walking along the banks of the rivers Rhône or Saône, having a dinner in a cosy traditional restaurant in Lyon's old town or visiting one of many museums, its warm atmosphere will leave you relaxed and thrilled to discover more of the French culture.

In conclusion, Lyon is a city of diversity with a great array of options that are waiting to be discovered!

La Basilique Fourvière

Panoramic view of Lyon from Basilique Fourvière

Church of Saint Georges in Vieux Lyon

Ancient Theatre of Fourvière

© François Fleury

Lyon – the capital of gastronomy