

Let's start with a disclaimer: this brochure is not an exhaustive guide, neither for Romania, lasi or for our University. We aimed to bring out the very basic info you need to... yes, cope with moving to a new place.

Chances are you come from far away and you probably know very little to nothing about Romania or lasi. Good news for you: so are most of those approximately 2500 international students (75 nations) in our university.

Our best advice is to take your time and discover lasi step-by-step: see the places, taste the dishes, learn the people. Then you can plan trips, starting from Moldova regions and then extending your reach further across Romania. Come with an open mind and you'll leave with an impressive luggage of memories and experiences – that we can promise.

One little technicality in the end: you'll often find in the pages of this brochure some black & white squares, like the one at the end of this page. They are called "QR codes". A QR code is a two dimensional barcode that stores information in black and white dots (called data pixels or "QR code modules"). All QR codes in our brochure are weblinks to further read information related to the content in a specific page.

In order to "read" the QR codes, you need to install an app on your smartphone – they are free and tones of them, on all platforms (Android, iOS or Microsoft OS). When you open the app, it will automatically launch the camera of your phone. All you have to do is point the camera to the QR code – the phone reads the weblink in the QR code and then opens the link or asks you if you want to open (depends on each app).

Candidates admitted in the first year and not enrolled in the period established by the decision of the University Board, lose the right to be enrolled.

Each student is enrolled in the matriculation register under a unique number, valid for the entire period of study.

Student card

In December, the Dean's Office releases each student a "Student Card", a document which confirms the student status, for which you have to provide 2 standard ID photos (to the head of the series).

Contract of study

And here are the blueprints for ground floor, 1st, 2nd and 3rd floors of the main building of "Grigore T. Popa" University of Medicine and Pharmacy Iași:

AS A STUDENT YOU SHOULD KNOW...

GRIGORE T. POPA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND PHARMACY IASI

Firstly, to pass a subject you will require a minimum 5 (from a scale 1 to 10) at the class mark (10%), minimum 5 at the practical exam mark (40%) and minimum 5 at the final written exam (50%).

Thus, if you only get a 3 as a class mark, you will have to repeat the subject the following year as a credit exam.

For the upcoming year you will need to collect a total of 45 credits; otherwise you will have to repeat the subjects of the first year.

In case someone failes a number of subjects, but fulfills the required 45 credits, will have to repeat only the failed subjects, the following year, on the credit examination periods (November/ December and March/ April).

The credit examination fee is 80 euros per credit. The student can only move credits up to two years ahead; otherwise he/she will fail the present year. For example, a third year student who didn't manage to pass a subject from the first year on the credit sessions will remain a third year student.

As a foreign student, you are required to learn the Romanian language so you can communicate with patients during the clinical based subjects (from the third year and ahead).

The university is providing you classes of Romanian language on the first and second years of studies.

Eventually, on the beginning of the third year, all foreign students must pass a Romanian Language Examination, which is tax-free, in order to prove their knowledge of the language. In case the student fails the examination, he/she will need a B2 Romanian certificate from specific recognized centers or will have to pay for a re-examination.

> Finally, if the student does not pass the examination, he/she will be expelled from the faculty.

On call duty (aka "Garda" in Romanian)

Every year, we have to do 4 shifts ('Garda'), during one semester.

The procedure:

- You will have to contact the doctors who are on call in the department you are interested in. The 'Garda' takes place during the visit of the patients, usually in the afternoon. (This depends on the department)
- Here you have the link for places where you can attend the garda: http://dspiasi.ro/informatii-utile/garzi/
- 3. Gather in groups of maximum 4 persons for one shift
- 2 duties in Surgery and 2 in Internal Medicine (Nephrology, Gastroenterology, Cardiology, ENT etc)
- When you complete them all, you need to give the filled-in standard form to the head of the series (responsible student of the seria-year)
- The standard form, together with a list of doctors you can contact, will be shared by the head of the series during the semester (updated every academic year).

Summer practice

- The summer practice is mandatory and it should last for 3 weeks (3 weeks-15 days-8 hours per day).
- You can have it here, in your country or in other countries in an authorized hospital
- The summer practice certificate (form) will be shared at the beginning of July (a different form in each academic year). It must be filled and signed by the summer practice coordinator (Professor/ Specialist doctor/Chief of the clinic).
- ✓ You have to scan it and send it to your faculty secretary before a specific date which will be announced by the Dean's Office.

If you do not complete the summer practice, you will proceed in the next academic year with a rest of 2 credits exam, for which you will have to pay 160 eur (80 eur / credit).

GRIGORE T. POPA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND PHARMACY IASI

If you have extra non-attendances/absences (more than those you are allowed to have by not being sick), you have to pay and repeat the classes in order to obtain a class mark (10%).

HOW TO DO THAT?

- Ask your professors for the number of non-attendances you need to retake.
- Complete the application form and ask the assistant to sign it. (Go to the "Applications" link)
- 3. Go to the Faculty of Pharmacy headquarters, at the "Casier" Office and pay the fee, which is 20 lei per hour.
- 4. Give the receipt and the application form to your secretary, for which she will give you a small paper entitled ``Adeverinta`` that you have to give to your professors.

Please be careful and don't over do it with the abcences!

Of course, your presence is not mandatory at the lectures, but it is recommended.

In case you were sick, you have to contact the university doctor for a checkup.

In this case, you are also required to fill in an application form and give it to the secretary, together with a paper from the doctor. For all of this, you have a period of 2 weeks starting from the date you skipped the classes for health problems.

There are several student Societies you may join during your medical student years:

IMJS (International Medical Journal Society)

IMJS was made by students for students. Its main goal is to help students engage in activites such as national and international congresses and conferences and offer them support in writing and presenting their own medical papers.

The meetings are hold in English and at the beginning of each semester there is an open-house event where you are able to speak with the board members and learn more about the benefits of participating in such activities.

SSCR (Surgery Students' Society)

You'll be surprised, but even (future) medical doctors could get sick. So here is some useful information in case of:

First of all, we do not have specific regional diseases in Romania (like Malaria, Zika or the West

Orientation

In the vicinity of the Palace of Culture lies a breathtaking urbanist ensemble, a "city in the heart of the city". Palas manages to both appease the fever of shopping and satisfy the pleasure of spending time in the city. In other words, we are dealing with a "lifestyle center" equipped with a shopping mall, food court, shopping street, event halls, underground parking with 2,500 places, a park with green areas, gazebos, fountains and ambient music, all extending on an area of 270,000 square meters.

GRIGORE T. POPA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND PHARMACY IASI

[ map to the magical garden ]

The Botanical Garden of Iasi the first botanical garden in Romania and one of the largest in the world, with an area of 100 hectares, was founded by naturalist and physician Anastasius Fatu, in 1856. It is one of the "wonders" of the city, a true "provisional paradise" with more than 2000 plant species, all in a world overtaken by technology.

lasi is also famous for its "Copou" Garden, which is the oldest park in lasi, dating from 1833. The center of the park is home to a spectacular monument - the Lions Obelisk, one of the oldest monuments in the country's modern history, but also to an old linden tree, in the shade of which used to rest the greatest Romanian poet, Mihai Eminescu.

Also on Copou hill you can find the Exhibition Park, spread over several hectares, with terraces and playgrounds for children. For lovers of nature and sports, there are several recreation facilities outside the city area like: Ezareni Nautical Base, "Alexandru Matei" Aeroclub, Ciric Recreational nautical Base, HAMAK Recreational Club. Iasi also has equestrian clubs, synthetic football fields, go-kart tracks, aeroclubs, swimming pools, climbing facilities etc.

The number of cafes, bars, pubs and clubs has exploded in the recent years in lasi so it's pretty hard to put down a list here. We will be short:

On Lascar Catargi no.50 is the Retro Café, opened in a beautiful restored house, very frequented by medical students who have courses nearby. It is air-conditioned and is open until midnight.

Time Out is on the chic side, with a wonderful interior design. The only problem is this place is mostly visited by people with more money than the regular Joe.

Up the Yellow Ravine ("Râpa Galbenă") you can find Acaju, on Anastasie Fătu Street, no. 2A. Acaju is pretty much the ultimate happy place. Whether you're catching up with friends or bent over your laptop dutifully avoiding the cost of shared office space, its beautiful terrace is one hell of a mood enhancer. Also, the staff's hospitality definitely warms up this shabby chic haven.

If you're around the city center, check in to the so-called Cube Area ("Ia Cub"), particularly if you like partying until dawn. This is a hotspot for entertaining, where several bars and clubs are located. La Bază can be a cheap and fun place to hang out on Fridays and Saturdays. The music is a mix between Rock and Electronic, so anyone can get their cake and eat it too. The prices are extremely friendly: you can buy a beer for approximately $2, 5. If you are a fan of craft cocktails Oddity is "strangely appropriate". The bar's interior design is also something to shout about.

With an outdoor seating overlooking the old city center, smiling service and terrific coffee for the picky drinkers, Gist opened its doors in 2020. This "new kid on the block" is really close to the University, right across the Select Hotel.

On Ștefan Cel Mare Street, lași's most famous boulevard lays Bistro La Noi. This tiny cute bistro serves freshly baked pastries and many delicious brunch selections.

Are you a fan of beer? We have one of those also. Beer Zone provides a wide variety of beers and, strangely, is also famous for its Ramen and Pho Bo soup.

Of course, lasi has a number of a posh clubs for those who love to dance, like Fratelli, Skin, Nish feat. Nuva. But be careful, they don't come cheap.

Cafeneaua Piata Unirii is another good choice. In terms of music, it may not excel, but it's certainly cheaper and nicer. Around once a week, the cafe hosts concerts of various artists, of which the style can go from regular cover bands to hardcore blues ones.

If you want to get your "portion of culture", you can either enjoy a play at the "Vasile Alecsandri" National Theatre or "Luceafarul" Theatre, be entertained by one of the best string quartets in Europe – the "Voces" Quartet at the "George Enescu" Philharmonic or spend an unforgettable evening at the Romanian National Opera Iasi.

A ticket to the theatre varies between 4 and 7.2 euros, to the Philharmonic is 4.5 euros and to the Opera around 10 euros.

It will take tomes, not pages to point out the landmarks and their stories. Actually, the city itself is a story, a long one with many, may volumes. You can start "digging out" the city of lasi on Wiki.

However, our friends from romaniatourism.com were braver than us and managed to writte down a list of highlights, landmarks and attractions in lasi, it's using the QR bellow:

GRIGORE T. POPA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND PHARMACY IASI

We gathered here some useful information for your everyday life in lasi. Sort of a Q&A section, but far from being exhaustive. Keep in mind the info on this brochure is also available online, at orientation.umfiasi.ro. The website includes a dedicated forum where you can ask your own questions and actually get answers from intensively trained personnel in survival techniques (but don't tell them that, they're shy).

RESIDENCE PERMIT

If you decide to stay more than three months in Romania, you must absolutely have a residence permit. For this, you need 2 passport photos, a rent receipt, a copy of your passport, and a few dozen lei for the various expenses incurred. You must report to the police for this residence permit. The building is located on str. Costachescu, 5 mins from Super Copou.

MONEY EXCHANGE

Changing money can be done directly in a bank or in a money exchange office. Beware at the prices charged, some exchange rates are prohibitive. Exchange rates are updated daily. It's up to you to hope for a "good" day if you change large sums of money at once. There are also exchange offices in most of the shopping centers around lasi.

SHOPPING

Located in the historic core of the city, near the Palace of Culture, the PALAS ensemble is a charming retail promenade, with restaurants and cafes everywhere, a chic area which turns downtown lasi into a cosmopolitan area. Another shopping center is lulius Mall, located in Tudor Vladimirescu neighbourhood, famous for its CinemaCity, where you can enjoy the latest blockbusters. Throughout the city you can find a lot of Lidl, Carrefour, Kaufland or Profi supermarkets. You should know that most of the shops open at 9 or 10 am and close at 11 pm except on Sundays when they close at 10 pm! You will also find some little shops that are open 24/24 and 7/7.
