Loïs REID

International Management Master at CEMS

TBS Education allowed me to go abroad thanks to my internships (Barcelona, Dublin) and my exchange (Shanghai). I also had the chance to join the Welcome Team, the association that welcomes foreign students. I discovered management, project management and this made me want to work with companies that have a presence around the world.

Inspired by the values of the school, I continued my studies abroad. I had the chance to join CEMS, a Master's program that brings together 32 business schools around the world. I had the opportunity to study in Lisbon (Nova Sbe), Singapore (National University of Singapore), Tokyo (Keio University), St. Petersburg (St. Petersburg University) and Sydney (Graduate School of Management)!

Alexis MURAT

Triple Master at Bocconi University, City University of London and Yale University. Co-founder of Vizion Group, Alteco, UpStrive and Younivr

“ TBS Education has allowed me to blossom through unique adventures in the international arena

My second year of college at Arizona State University was an opportunity to improve my English skills and to live an unforgettable experience mixing culture, diversity and discovery; while my final year in a double degree program at the European University Viadrina Frankfurt has opened doors for me to academic excellence as I have integrated a triple Master's degree ranked in the world Top 10 after my Bachelor's degree!
